

WHEN YOU CAN'T TRAVEL AND ROW

AUSTRALIA: TASMANIA

Tasmania is absolutely worth the journey. This compact island has it all. Mountains above alpine lakes, dazzling white beaches and vibrant communities with a fascinating history. We rowed Tasmania in 2019, and cannot wait to come back! If you are like us, here are a few resources to scratch your travel itch.

Our blog

Wallaby and Other Wonders in Tasmania.

1

Tasmania 360

Website dedicated to showcasing the natural beauty of Tasmania.

If you are into photography they are your go-to resource on Tasmania. Pictures, 360 panoramas, timelapses, nature and culture guides. They have it all!

2

Port Arthur

World Heritage-listed Historic Site \(map with 360 views\).

Port Arthur is a town and former convict settlement, that forms part of the Australian Convict Sites, a World Heritage property consisting of 11 remnant penal sites originally built within the British Empire during the 18th and 19th centuries.

3

Tasmanian cuisine

Recipes from saveur.com

If you want to eat fresh and local, Tasmania is the place to come – they claim that the culinary experience is the envy of chefs around the world. Follow the link above to find some Tasmanian recipes to try at home.

4

Tasmanian Museum and Art Gallery

Tasmania's leading natural, cultural and heritage organisation.

TMAG has launched a series of virtual tours on history, art and wildlife on their youtube channel.

ROWING THE WORLD

