

When you cannot travel & row

British Columbia

Impossible not to love Canada's Pacific Coast and mountain province. Big breakers roll in from the Pacific, drawing surfers to Tofino. Paradise for hikers, whale watchers, kayakers and rowers - BC is worth the visit. Even if it a virtual one (for now).

The famous Museum of Vancouver invites you to take a break from Netflix, and explore their virtual resources. Including a full 360 tour of their History Gallery.

BARKERVILLE — HISTORIC TOWN & PARK —

Extraordinary historic town of Barkerville stands as a living testament to BC's gold rush. Popular place to visit, they have an impressive online presence, including full tour of the town.

BC virtual

BC has a massive virtual presence. Some of the national & federal parks can be explored virtually. Also, don't forget to check out these video tours.

BC recipes

From decadent desserts to fresh seafood - try some of the iconic BC recipes at home. Collected by Food Network Canada here and here.

Rowing BC posted a ton of challenges and workouts to try at home, in case you are not able to hit the water just yet.

Don't forget to check out the video from our 2019 Rowing Tour!
