

day 6

Photo by rowtonowhere.com

This year COVID kept many rowers inside clinged to their ergs. If life gives you lemons...Andrew Stahmer took the challenge to a whole new level. He planned an imaginary trip around Australia and rows every day to a new location. He documents his journey and things he 'sees', looks into history, food, culture of places he 'visits'. What started as a facebook page, evolved into an informative and inspiring blog -

Rowtonowhere!